Part B — Statement of Free, Prior and Informed Consent

We, the undersigned — representing the [community name] weaving community — hereby state:

1. We have been fully informed about the AWDA 2026 / GalingLikha program — its purpose, process, judging criteria, prize structure, and how our weaving tradition, narratives, motifs, and documentary evidence will be used.
2. We were given sufficient time to deliberate as a community before arriving at this decision.
3. Our consent is freely given — without pressure, inducement, or coercion.
4. We understand that our cultural narrative, photographs, motif descriptions, and swatch will be: (a) used for evaluation; (b) potentially displayed in public exhibitions and media; (c) potentially included in the ASEAN Amazing Weaves & Waves Trade Show (November 7–9, 2026, Okada Manila); and (d) archived in AWDA program records.
5. We retain all rights to our cultural knowledge, motifs, and traditional practices. AWDA recognition does not constitute an assignment, license, or transfer of our intellectual property rights to any party.
6. The benefit-sharing arrangement governing prizes and commercial proceeds is separately documented in Annex D-3, which we have reviewed and agreed to.
