How is the community's commercial share calculated?	☐ % of wholesale price ☐ % of retail price ☐ Fixed per-piece rate: PhP _____
When is commercial share transferred?	☐ Monthly ☐ Quarterly ☐ Per transaction ☐ Other: _____
Does the community have governance authority over commercial use?	☐ Full (cooperative approves all commercial use) ☐ Partial — describe ☐ Advisory only

Part D — Recognition & Non-monetary Benefits

The parties agree that the weaving community will be credited and recognized as follows in all AWDA-related materials:

- The community is named as the source and rights-holder of the cultural knowledge in all documentation, exhibition panels, press releases, and media coverage.
- The official IP Attribution Statement (Annex D-2) is reproduced on all product labels and promotional materials.
- The community's name and location appear on all photographs, videos, and social media content related to this nomination.
- The community is separately represented in any ASEAN Trade Show booth or exhibition display — not subsumed under the LGU's name alone.

Additional agreed recognition terms:

Part E — Dispute Resolution

1. The parties first attempt resolution through direct dialogue within 15 days of the dispute arising.
2. If unresolved, the AWDA National Secretariat serves as mediator.
3. If still unresolved, parties may seek mediation through the Cooperative Development Authority (CDA) for cooperative disputes, or through NCIP for IP-related disputes.
4. In all cases, the minimum 40% community prize share is non-negotiable and enforceable.
